—Louis Clarke, colored, who was five years ago convicted of housebreaking by the Bartlett court and sentenced to the penitentiary, has twice made his escape. He also escaped from the stationhouse, but was arrested on yesterday morning by Detective Pryde for stealing chickens from Justice Crockett, of Court street extended. Clarke is a notorious burglar and thief. It is to be hoped that when he goes to the penitentiary this time, that the penitentiary authorities will, by some means or other, keep him until his term of service expires. -On the night of the fifteenth of next month Manager Rickaby will take a benefit at the Memphis Theater. A fine list of attractions will be presented on that occasion, and which will be announced in due time. During the present season Manager Rickaby Iron Mountain and Fulton, and Texas Pacific has striven hard to please the public, and has put the Theater in a most comfortable condi tion. His benefit will be a good one, because the attractions to be presented will be worthy of patronage, and because the enterprising nanager deserves a recognition at the hands of the theater-going public.

-Says the Knoxville Tribune, of January 26th: "The passage by the senate, yesterday, of the bill requiring the Memphis custom-house to be built of Tennessee marble, was a sensible movement. Let us have no more sensible movement. Let us have no more oses in the world, of the truth of which our beautiful Knoxville customhouse is a fine ex-emplification. There is not a handsomer nor more durable public building in the United States. The marble of which it is constructed was quarried within five miles of our city. -Yesterday afternoon, at an adjourned eeting held at the committee-rooms, No. 15 Monroe street, quite a large number of merchants and other property owners were present. Mr. Sem Mosby was called to the chair. Mr. Hug LeB in they act das sec. their views as to the objects sought to be ac complished. A resolution was adopted, expressing the sense of the meeting, that every facility in the power of the tax-payers should be rendered to said and endergage the present funding to aid and encourage the present funding scheme of the city. The meeting adjourned and due notice will be given as to the time and place of holding another meeting.

-The city is infested with thieves, burg lars and swindlers generally. On Sunday night burglars entered Attorney-General Luke E. Wright's residence, on Shelby street, and stole a sum of money belonging to Raphael Semmes, but after extracting his watch from his vest left the chronometer on the mastel. the mantel. The burglars also entered Ex-Mayor John Johnson's residence, but being fired at decamped without their booty. An neffectual eff rt was made to enter Mr. W L. Simmons's residence, but the burglars, after cutting the window slats, seemed to be afraid of a gun and left. Captain Alley's house was also visited by the burglars, but hey failed to steal anything.

-Yesterday afternoon John Kilcoyne, a moulder by trade, got into a row with an un-known man at Mrs. Blackburn's den, No. 82 Front street. He struck the man with a brick, knocked his teeth out, and cut his face in a severe manner. Kilcoyne ran, but was pursued by the police up and down alleys, and was at last captured and locked up at the tationhouse. It being rumored that the man stationhouse. It being rumored that the man was killed, our sensation-hunting reporter, with a policeman and Deputy-Coroner Britt, visited the den of infamy for the purpose of holding an inquest, but such was rendered unnecessary, when a young lady of the dirty-blonde grade, connected with the establishment, sang out, "By G—d, the man sin't dead; what in the h—l are ye all coming here for?"

—At the criminal court, yesterday, the following business was transacted: Bill Dooley, carrying concealed weapons, jury and verdict of guilty as charged; motion for new trial entered. Mr. S. R. Gammon was sworn in as attorney general area for the court as attorney-general pro tem. of the court. Robert Horton, assault and battery, jury and verdict of guilty as charged; fine imposed by the court, twenty-five dollars. Dock Goss, larceny, case revived. Thomas Clear, breaking into storehouse to commit larceny, jury and verdict of guilty as charged, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for three years. John Robinson, assault and battery, jury and verdict of not guilty. The case of John Robinson, carrying a bowieknife, was placed on trial in the afternoon. The further hearing of the case was continued over to this morning. over to this morning.

— Says the Shelbyville (Tenn.) Commercial, of January 25th: "Tuesday morning of last week an old lady, Mrs. Sarah Johnson, and her grandson, John H. Terry, of this county, got aboard the cars in Nashville at the Louisville depot, to visit her son at Moulton, Alabama. They had never traveled on the cars before, and were ignorant of sharpers who play off their tricks on unsuspecting passengers. While seated in the car, the old lady inquired of some of the passengers the distance to Moulton, when a well-dressed individual approached her and said he knew her son very well, was on his way to Moulton, and would go on with them to that place. Just before the train moved out of the depot, he said he had some gold which he would like to exchange for greenbacks, as it was so low and was troublesome to carry; whereupon she took out her purse, but it bewhereupon she took out her purse, but it being too dark in the depot, she handed her money to her grandson to count for her. Then the man suggested going into the next car, where there was more light, where young Johnson counted seventeen dollars, which he handed to him. The man told him to keep his seat while he went to look up his friend who had his gold. He never returned, and the old lady says she did not have any idea that there were any folks in the world that would do such a mean thing. There should be no law for such scoundrels when

GENERAL COUNCIL.

The Salary Bill Passed with Amend ments-An Investigating Committee Appointed by the Council in the Willis Radford Matter.

Chairman Kortrecht, of the Council, Retires During the Pendency of the Investigation of the Alledged Bribery Case, Etc.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN. At half past seven o'clock last night the board of councilmen met at the city hall, Chairman Kortrecht presiding. On the roll being called twenty members answered to their names. Both boards were announced as ready for business, quorums being present. Mr. Fisher, of the Sixth ward, arose to a question of privilege—that a rumor was in circulation, and he had seen reports published in the papers, with reference to certain charges against him. These charges are most villainously false. He demanded a full investigation of the charges. Chairman Kortrecht stated that he had noticed the charges; however distinguished and honorable the position of chairman of the board may be, it was not high enough to be retained by him should any charges be made. He desired the council to take charge of the affair and fully investigate it. Councilman Renkert, of the first ward, offered the following resolution, which was anopted:

WHEREAS, Rumors of briberp and corruption have been published touching certain members of this board; and whereas, it is due, not only to the members so suspicioned, but the common council, that a full, fair and impartial investigation of all the facts should be had and determined; therefore, be it Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the common council, with power to send for persons and papers to investigate the charges as reported in the Evening Ledger of the twenty-sixth instant, and resterate in the Appeal of the twenty-seventh instant, in regard to Councilman G. G. Fisher, of the sixth ward, and councilman Willis Radford, of the tenth ward; and that the committee have ample power to investigate and report ully in the premises.

Chairman Kortrecht asked to retire from the position of chairman while the matter was being investigated.

Mr. Bates was elected pro tem., and tool The ordinance on officers' bonds and sala ries was passed on its first reading.

The committee on rules and resolutions recommended the adoption of the rules and resolutions used by the former general council. Adopted.

Chairman Bates appointed as a committee of investigation on bribery and corruption, Messrs. Renkert, Proudfit, Snowden, Woods Dr. Goodyear, whose name was on the committee appointed, asked to be excused. It would be indelicate for him to act as a judge and a witness, and he expected to be called as a witness in the case. He was excused, and Councilman Bohan, of the first ward, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The salaray and bonds ordinance was brought in from the called a salaray and bonds ordinance.

J. T. WASHINGTON Appet A bail bond is a bond for the payment money within the meaning of the code, section 3162, and on appeal from a judgment hereon the security is bound for the damages and costs. Little vs. the Judges M'Farland and Turney dissent. FRAUD UPON CREDITORS. Webb mortgaged to Gooch personal prop erty to secure him against loss as his security on notes given for the purchase of land. H., B. & Co. failed to set aside the mortgage for fraud, but Webb, having used the proceeds of the personalty, while under mortgage, to pay for the land, in order that he might claim it as a homestead. It was held by the court this was a fraud upon the rights of his creditors, and H., B & Co. were allowed to subject the land to the payment of their deb to the extent that the mortgaged property had been used in its payment. Hollins, Burton & Co. vs. Webb. ASSIGNMENT OF AN ILLEGAL NOTE. A party purchasing property and paying for it by assignment of a note indorsed "without recourse," and which bears on its face the rate of interest not allowed by law, and which consequently cannot be enforced by law in our courts, cannot, in the absence of fraud, deceit or bad faith, be held liable either on an implied warranty growing out of such a contract or for the original considera-tion. Walker vs. Clark et als.

ASSIGNMENT OF A NOTE VALUELESS-WHEN THE ASSIGNEE MAY RECOVER. In all cases when the assignor, whether b delivery or "without recourse," of a bill of note knows it to be of no value, and the as signee receives it in good faith, not aware of the fact, paying value for it, the assignor may be compelled to repay or return the consid-eration thus received. Walker rs. Clark et

WHEN THE ASSIGNEE OF A NOTE CANNOT RECOVER. But in a case where a party gets all he bargains for, takes the note for the thing sold, with full knowledge of what it is, the paper is precisely what it purports to be, is not forged, void, or subject to any equity. He requires nothing else, and the other agrees to give nothing else. In the absence of fraud, deceit or good faith, he must stand by the contract and take its results.

maxims which have for many years obstruct ed the progress of medical science. The false supposition that "consumption is incurable" deterred physicians from attemption to find remedies for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable. It is now proved, however, that Consumption can be cured, and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's pul-monic syrup alone; and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's sea weed tonic and mandrake pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case. Dr. Schenck himself, who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years, was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians hav-ing pronounced his case hopeless, and aban-doned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and, since his recovery, many thousands similarly affected have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines are
